For Immediate Release

OPSOA Announces New President –
Tony Tumminieri

At its annual conference in Toronto on April 2, 2004, the members of the Ontario Public Supervisory Officials' Association (OPSOA) elected Tony Tumminieri, Superintendent of Education with the Toronto District School Board as President for 2004–2005. Mr. Tumminieri assumes his duties as President on June 1, 2004.

A resident of Toronto, Tony has been an educational leader as a teacher, principal and senior administrator. As well as his work as Superintendent of Education, he has held portfolios in Employee Relations and in Program. A strong advocate of staff development, Tony has led programs in school safety, anti-bullying and the development of leadership initiatives for school staff and for senior staff. He is known for his work in enhancing positive communication within the education community.
